PLATINUM GOLD

The trio are Zsuzsa, the singer and front woman of the group, who will blow you away with her powerful yet sensual vocals, Krayzee, who's rap style lives up to his name, but in a very good way and Ski, who rounds off the group with his smooth vocal tone and rap style.

All three members are accomplished and experienced musician's in their own right.

Platinumgold will give you a reason to wanna dance as they release their debut single entitled No More on July 30th 2010.

Band members are:

Zsuzsa (originally from-Hungry)

Anthony (a.k.a. Ski) originally from N.Y.

Kenny (a.k.a. Krayzee) originally from Washington D.C.

Anthony and Kenny are two artists, who although they are from the U.S. Both share international experience and success. Between the two, they have worked with various top artists in Germany, ranging from Dieter Bohlen to Sarah Connor.

Anthony even won the prestigious B.M.I. award (pop category) for the writing of Sarah's worldwide hit single „Bounce“.

The two have been long time friends, but only now have they combined their talents and with the addition of Zsuzsa their Hungarian born singer, whose voice can take you on a journey through anything from rock to r&b with a pleasure on the ears.

The exact spot where they met was the Hamburg studio from Shane Can Türkili, the founder of the Hookmaster Family. Not only the founder, but also the producer from PLATINUM GOLD.

The team behind the trio is:

Shane Can Türkili, song writer/ producer of Ayman and founder of the group Basstürk also member of EMI International Publishing.

Bülent Aris, who has produced for such groups as Backstreet Boys, N'sync and artists like Sarah Connor and is the 1998 Echo award winner for best producer of that year.

Carsten Schedler, who has produced for Max Herre and Joy Denalane.

Anthony (Ski) Freeman, songwriter, who has penned songs for Bro'Sis, Queensberry and Sarah Connor, whose song bounce in 2005 won him a B.M.I. award for writing in the category (pop).

The trio has set out along with their producer/song writer Shane Can Türkili, who thought up the combination of the trio to give the world a musical fusion of electro/pop/rnb and hiphop. The plan is for the three to become an European and then a world wide success.

The songs are great and the group has the look to match.

With songs like their first single „No more“ P.G. is well on their way to reaching that goal.

So hold on as PLATINUM GOLD takes you for the ride of your life.
